

Master of Arts in Governance and Development (MAGD)

Fall 2023 | Deadline: 17 Aug 2023

Apply online

Making Policy Work for Development

The Master of Arts in Governance and Development (MAGD) program offered by BIGD at Brac University provides a unique blend of globally acclaimed academic teaching and locally rooted practitioner insights.

The program equips promising policymakers with the capabilities to tackle multifaceted governance and development challenges with confidence.

Key Features

- Blended/hybrid program offered from Fall 2023
- Non-residential format provides flexibility for working students
- Course load of 36 credits, can be completed in one year without a thesis
- Classes are held from Saturday to Thursday, from 6.00 pm to 9.00 pm.
- Diverse and experienced faculty
- Cross-learning opportunities with development programs
- Strong alumni network for support

Full tuition fee waiver available for selected government officials.

Learn more: <https://bigd.bracu.ac.bd/academics/master-of-arts-in-governance-and-development-magd/>

Master of Arts in Governance and Development (MAGD)

Who is it for?

- Government officials or individuals employed by the Government of Bangladesh with at least 2 years of work experience, or individuals engaged in a profession that requires working with the government, or professionals/academicians who analyze public policy, or individuals with a specific academic interest in public policy, governance and development-related area.
- Maximum age limit of 40 years.
- Minimum Bachelor's degree in any discipline from any UGC-authorized university in Bangladesh or abroad, with at least a 2nd Class/Division or CGPA 2.5 out of 4.0 from any government-authorized university.

Note: Candidates with a third division or CGPA of 2.00 at any level of education are not eligible to apply.

Application Deadline
17 August 2023

Admission Test
25 August 2023

Apply Online
admissions.bracu.ac.bd

Learn more about MAGD:

<https://bigd.bracu.ac.bd/academics/master-of-arts-in-governance-and-development-magd/>

For any questions or clarifications, contact us at:

info.magd@bracu.ac.bd